

Week AD. 2 10 ±

Ancient Greeks had no week.
Romans lived by an 8-day week the Roman change from 8 to 7 seems not to have been accomplished by an official act. By the early 3rd century A.D. Romans were living with a 7-day week.

0-100 = 1st

Roman Law (186-217)

Roman citizenship was gradually extended throughout all Italy, until CARACALLA in 3rd cen. A.D. made all free inhabitants of the empire - ROMAN CITIZENS.

In this way Roman civil law became the law of the whole empire, PAPINIAN, PAUL, and ULPIAN were prominent jurists during this period-

217 was murdered by his successor
MACRINUS
